READING

Q.1 Read the following unseen passage and choose the correct answers.

Bachendri's story stands as an example of how going against your family's wishes can be hard but important from time to time. Raised surrounded by the Himalayas towering around her hometown, she intended to climb it one day, and focused on becoming a professional mountain climber. Moreover, she received a lot of discouragement for being a girl trying to take on such a physically challenging path. This only fuelled her passion; she was selected to be part of an expedition to the top of Mt. Everest. She braved being buried in snow, fierce icy winds and even losing sensation in her toes. She was one of the few who finally made it to the top creating history in being the first Indian woman to reach the summit 5

1. Which mountains surrounded Bachendri's hometown?
2. What was the childhood dream of Bachendri?
3. What did she want to become on growing up
4. What was the reaction of Bachendri's family regarding her choice of career?
5. Why did she receive a lot of discouragement?
